BLACK AND GOLD

1961

BAR,

Well it took twelve years, but we finally made it. I can hardly believe we will be graduating in less than two weeks.

BAR, don't ever forget the crazy times we've had together. We've really rocked this year. Remember Saturday morning bowling, basketball game, das cubanas, Miss Martin's rocking Spanish class, Miss Edwards, Macbeth, the day you, Linda, and I went to see Al at the Thruway, and the night we went to see "Ruth to alaska. This has been one year that I'll never forget, but I'm truly glad its over. Be nice and come to see me, Bobby & Janie this summer. We'll have a blast. Be good at the beach & don't let Chester get you all shook up. (I hope that doesn't sound dirty) Well, good. bye & remember always

Mark

Bar,
Remember the old days at Redmore? All twelve years of school? The skating parties? It has really been great. I have really enjoyed knowing you and being in many classes with you. Good luck always.
Remember,
Joan Carol Baker

Dear Barb.
It's been three
and one half years since I met you. You are one great girl.
We've had some
rocky times in high school
Hang in there & best of luck to you in life.

Dear Barbara,
It has been wonderful knowing you here at Reynolds these past few years. We both had the Swapper for 1st and 2nd period. The best of luck to a sweet girl.
Chuck Lee

Dear Barbara,

I've enjoyed knowing you this past year. History and psychology wouldn't have been the same without you. Don't forget the day we were inducted into the N. H. S. — everybody hated us! Be good and come see me this summer.

Love,
Ruth Buckley

Dear Barbara,
Well, I can hardly believe it's true! I'm so glad to say good-bye to it. It seems like only yesterday we were at Admiral Farragut. I have really enjoyed being in Miss Lyon's English with you this year. We also had a good time when we were in Judy's wedding, didn't we? Have fun this summer and at school next fall.
Love,
Ruth

Barb -
Hi Sweets, Well
I really have enjoyed being in Span. with you this year.

Barb,
It's been great seeing you at Reynolds all these years. Have fun this summer and try not to rock to much this summer
and leave some of the beach for me. Be good and try to stay out of trouble.

Foreword

The Black and Gold, reflecting and sharing the spirit of Reynolds High School, tells the story of memorable events and people. Progressive—enterprising—everchanging—these words describe the industrious atmosphere of learning at Reynolds, where teachers lend their knowledge to eager students. Outstanding Reynoldsites "on the move" determine our modern theme of Patterns: The Black and Gold has tried to present achievements of students and faculty working together to promote sound education and character.

Dedication

Humor, friendship, and understanding — that's our Mr. Wilson. We will never forget his unfaltering interest and devotion toward education, his quick friendliness and good-will, and his unfailing patience with students. A beloved teacher and great coach, Mr. Wilson has led us to feel unlimited respect and admiration for his contributions at Richard J. Reynolds High School.

Best wishes!
Coach —
I enjoyed having you in class this year. Thank you the best of everything in the future.

In his psychology classroom, Mr. Wilson was always eager to answer or discuss any question.

During a tense moment of a football game, Coach W watched and worried with Coach Bryson.

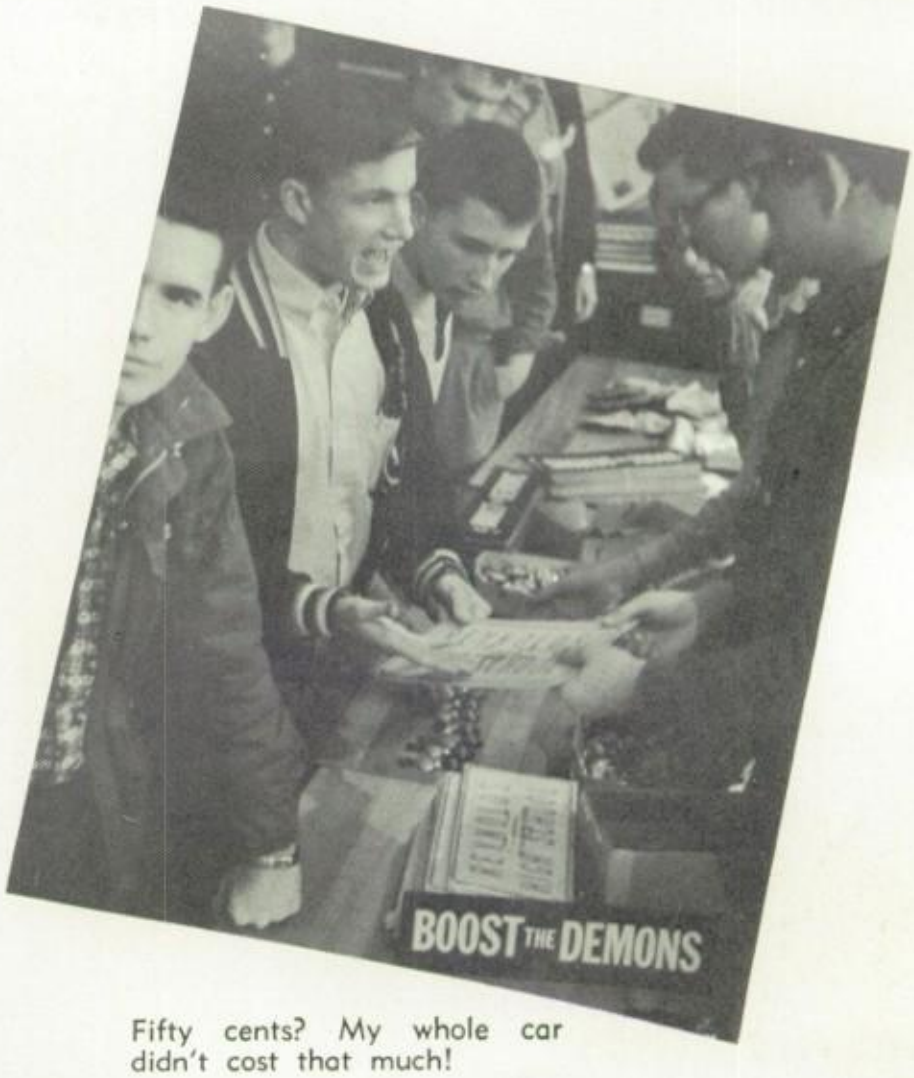
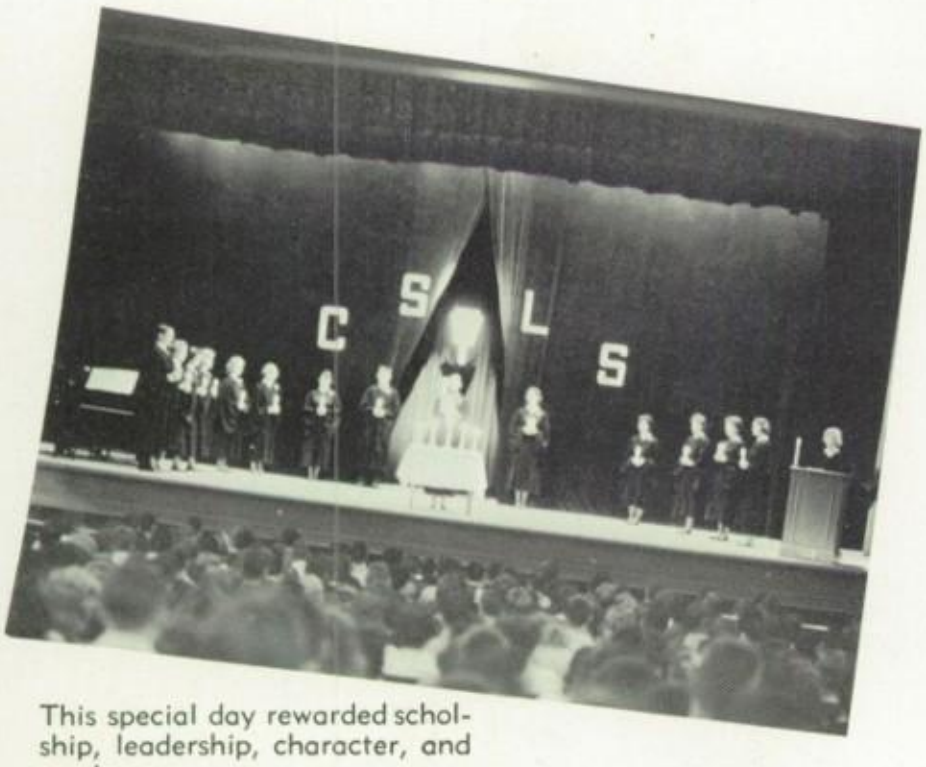
Memories

The scribes worked to record senior memories for posterity.



Fifty cents? My whole car didn't cost that much!



This special day rewarded scholship, leadership, character, and service.

Flowers? What flowers?

Miss Weaver has guided many a confused senior to a wise decision.

Class Prophecy

Lilting strains of music flow from the dimly lighted terrace. As the couples sway back and forth in a gliding waltz, the scene becomes a kaleidoscope of color. The rich, bright dresses of the ladies shift in never-ending patterns as their partners whirl them around the dance floor. The scene is A Summer Place, that lavish and exotic club owned by the R. J. Reynolds class of 1961. Tonight, June 1, 1986, is their twenty-fifth reunion, and they are celebrating the proud occasion with an extravagant Reunion Ball.

Slowly and cautiously descending from the 1986 Cadillac space-winder that they won at the Food Fair, Bachelor Barrow, the esteemed Master of Ceremonies, is escorting four gossiping spinsters: Boring Badgett, Bashful Benbow, Wishful Walker, and Dumpy Dull, who enter the building, where they recognize many familiar faces.

BASHFUL: There are the celebrated actor and actress, Robert Pickett and Linda Watson! Recently they have been selected as the most versatile performers on television.

DUMPY: Oh, did you hear that Mike Nesbit, Wayne Moore, and Don Morris have joined the French Forlorn Legion? Also engaged in military activity are Charlcey Marion, Shelia Lund, and Doris Jean Moore, who officiated at the departure of Elvis to Germany.

BACHELOR: I didn't know that, But Businssemen announced that Chris Pappas, Lynn Carter, Kathy Kellerher, and Gail Savage now hold high positions in the business world of women. They retail Rin Tin Tin flea-repellent night shirts for Russian wolf hounds and Mickey Mouse guitars endorsed by Gene Krupa.

DUMPY: Eloise Carlton and Caroline Marr now hold records in the Summer Olympics. Eloise won first place in the woman's discus-throwing division and Caroline swam the Indian Ocean in twelve hours, forty days. Larry Nicks, Gilbert Shermer, and Lynn Myers, the famous Italian artists, have exhibited several of their masterpieces in the Beverly Baily and the Kathy Burke Art Museums.

BASHFUL: I wonder what language these people are speaking? Oh, I think I recognize it. It's that new dialect of Saturn. The chief ambassadors to the ringed planet, Richard Turner and Bill Burke, and their trusty assistants, Jimmy Stine, Tommy Loflin, and Joy Skipper have been trying to devise a cultural exchange program between the Earth and Saturn. So far the only success has been achieved in the sending of Professor Carter Phillips to teach Latin to the Saturnites.

BACHELOR: Ann Causby, Cynthia Cann, and Eddy Lincoln are campaigning to keep their neighborhood clean. They all make soap box speeches.

WISHFUL: Yesterday I heard that Harry Moody, Roy Bredder, and George Boney have invented a new lunar calendar. One of the more famous events is the airplane flight to the moon by William Powers and James Motsinger. I also heard that the U. S. Olympic kite-flying team, composed of Richard Perryman, Sara Jobe, and Larry Byrd is back from competition.

BORING: Roberta Menz has just arrived, wearing her traditional Black and Gold sweater, which bears the letters BEAT SOMEBODY. Several members of the Spinsters Club have come with Roberta. I have heard that Jill O'Brien, Sue Airey, and Peggy Bagnal still correspond with Abbey Farthing and her lovelorn column.

DUMPY: Have you read Mike Georgoulias's latest best-seller? I Escaped From the Kremlin is a stirring book in which Mike tells how he blasted a hole in the iron curtain. Also outstanding in the literary field are Nancy Adams, Carole Ridgeway, and Linda Lou Weavil. Their First Aid Handbook gives instructions for dressing skinned knees, scratches, and salads.

WISHFUL: A few days ago I read that Elsa Eysenbach and De Ann Lofland were given a farewell party.

BACHELOR: Where are they going?

BORING: "North to Alaska." They're completing their final requirements for the Outdoors badge.

BASHFUL: I don't believe it.

BORING: Girl Scouts Honor.

DUMPY: The Canary Islands are the scene of another excursion. It seems that Ann Strickland needed 299 genuine yellow-wengus black-beakus canaries for her aviary. Her trained helpers, Roddy Hudson, Madeline Clary, and Claire Mae Johnson, lugged enough salt to cover the tails of 299 birds.

WISHFUL: Oh, who is that peering at our potted plant?

BACHELOR: Why it's that world-renowned horticulturist, David with his "Green" thumb. He finally proved that money does grow on trees. Bonnie Burton, David Saunders, Henry Starbuck, Bob Wilson, and James McGraw are putting in their orders for his product.

BORING: Don't you think that our Cooks (Dianne and Trudy) should be honored tonight? Their menu consisting of Polly Kellogg's cornflakes, Vickie Campbell's chicken and rice soup (compliments of Leon) has been most enjoyable. Also Lana Hines added her famous catsup for flavoring.

Class Prophecy

BASHFUL: I really do think they have done an excellent job. Other girls with creative genius, Jane Barber, Susan Adams, and Marian Brockwell of the George rev-Long studios, discovered a sensational hair cream for the men. It consists of 90% monkey grease, 2% alcohol, and 8% man tan.

WISHFUL: Did you hear that Winfield Beroth won the world-famous Latin Quarter Horse Race with his million-dollar stallion "Trojan Horse"? Ann Butner, Barbara Lineberger, and Dianne Binkley were among those pulling him on to victory.

BORING: Also tonight we are honored with Milton "Mitch" Miller and his orchestra: Carol "Dizzy Fingers" Thacker with Peyton Bates and Freddy Ebert on the sax, Robert Pulliam with his trombone, Marshall Orr and Lawrence Briggs with their trumpets, Harold Schuitmaker on the bass, and Ted Phillips with his guitar. They asked us to announce that they are available for weddings, shopping center openings, and square dances. Their telephone number is Tokyo 00000.

WISHFUL: Did you see that the scientists Bill Mitchell, Jerry Newton, and Ronald Mehlen have invented a new type of sailing vessel? They attached a $19.95 mixmaster to a $6.95 laundry tub, creating an inexpensive run about. There is only one drawback: the extension cords cost $1,595.00.

BACHELOR: Marian Bagnal, Betty Lou Bricker, and Barbara Byerly have also invented a revolutionary fur trap. Three weeks ago they caught a $16,500 mink. (It was draped over a chair in the Plantation Club.)

DUMPY: Earl Wilson wrote that millionheiress Margaret Mabe will definitely not marry her tutor as previously announced. It's Margaret's companion, Susan Aspden, who is marrying him. Anyway, Margaret is secretly engaged to her chauffeur.

BASHFUL: Jon Bednerik and Doc Clay have just made their fortunes producing South Atlantic, starring Judith Allred "Anderson" and James "Maurice" Evans. David Mickey and Frank Phillips have composed a new Y-Teen song for the organ. Susan Matuszak, president of the worldwide organization, is forming a chorus with Betsy Georgoulias, Kathryn Hancock, Barbara Kent, and Margaret Orrell.

WISHFUL: Recently Richard Herring judged an elite beauty contest. Kathryn Masten, Robin Parnell, Doris Mills, Linda Pratt, and Judy Carpenter were the five finalists. When Miss Masten was announced the winner, she was asked to comment. In reply, she said, "What, me worry?" Later Jim Canull was announced Mr. America.

BORING: David Alexander has received a $5,000 scholarship to UCLA as their star football manager. The Washington Redskins scouts, Buck Anderson and Roger Carlton, have offered him a starting position for their 1999 team. (Not as a manager but as an ice crusher for the water bucket.)

DUMPY: Larry Bennet, Joe Apperson, and Mac Sawer have decided that golf is one miserable game. They think that sleeping late is a good substitute for the eighteen holes. Also the clubs can be sold or used as attractive fireplace andirons.

BACHELOR: Linda Burrows, Ramona Martin, and Joan Snyder recently went on a five-day diet. Their menu consisted of twelve toasted celery seeds, one bowl of alphabet soup, (vowels only) and two meatless steaks.

BASHFUL: The great private eye, Susan "Sherlock" Homes, and amateur detectives Jimmy Young, Terry Beitchman and Mike Boyd have been poking around an old castle in the Scottish Highlands, trying to solve the intriguing mystery "Who Killed Duncan?" Their only discovery was Herb Schiller pursuing his study of witchcraft.

DUMPY: Binkley and Binkley Jewelry Store, owned by Ruth and Wanda, specializes in diamonds. Their theme is "Diamonds last forever and so do the payments."

BASHFUL: Fam Brownlee, Wilburn Manuel, and Ted and Joe Judwig have just released on the table label their new album "Music to Eat By," starring Don "Chocolate Chip"man.

BAHSFUL: Fam Brownlee, Wilburn Manuel, and Ted Miller, the newly elected senators from Alaska are now campaigning for better housing developments their igloos melted.

BORING: Linda Beach, Sue Brenner, Brenda Brigman, Carol Miller, and Linda Poteete, the noted cover artists who were hired recently by Life magazine, were suddenly fired by Ronald Murray, editor, after handing in six designs for an article on Eisenhower. Their six sketches were portraits of Castro.

DUMPY: Linda Rogers has topped Roy's fame in her Western, The Adventures of Miss Linda. She has just been named "Cowpuncher of the Year."

BACHELOR: Danna Reinhardt and Lonna Riemenschneider have opened a school for secretaries, businessmen, teachers, camp counselors, or anyone else who needs to learn to spell long names. Some of their pupils have been Francis Edens, Carol Fletcher, and Carolyn Colter.

WISHFUL: Reid Cornwall has taken Sergeant Bilko's place on the STRIKE IT RICH show. Other members of our class who have gained fame on the show are John Chitty, David Stuart, Jerry Robertson, and Richard Roper.

Class Prophecy

BASHFUL: Billy Crater has opened his own employment office. Davis Dize, Robert Cranor, James Duncan, Steve Ebert, and Bill Davis are members of his advertising quintet who travel all over the state singing, "Get A Job."

BORING: Steve Disher, Steve Dula, Johnny Earnhardt, and Len Sale make up the fishing team representing the United States in the Olympics. When interviewed they had only one comment, "Well, I'm going down to the river." R. J. R. has sent other members of U. S. teams in the Olympics. Freddy Einstein is the golf medal winner; Chester Davis, Track; Charles Elkins, basketball; Tom Conrad, swimming; and Ronnie Belton, yodeling. Ira Shapiro is a member of the Mambo team, which is accompanied by those swinging Cubans, William, George, and Albert. Henry Russ and Frank Folb went along as managers.

DUMPY: Sandra Shepherd has made a new recording of "You Talk Too Much," for Chamber's Records, which is owned, incidently, by Bob and Bill Chambers.

WISHFUL: I. B. Southerland is now a photographer for Vogue Magazine. Some of his more famous models are Tina Russos, Susan Royster, Donna Steifel, and Diane Dull.

BASHFUL: Bceause of her successful experience of rope swinging in her junior year at R. J. R., Nancy Snow is now "Flying through the air with the greatest of ease" under Les Strumfel's "big top." Eddie Scott's dog show, the "Fabulous Scotties" is known far and wide.

BACHELOR: Bob Shaver has taken Perry Como's place on the "Listening to the Singing Barber" show, which is directed by David Simmons, and produced by Freeman's Cottons. Have you heard the new slogan?

DUMPY: No, What is it?

BACHELOR: "Whether shopping, partying, or just in your kitchens, You'll look smart in cottons picked by Picken's."

BORING: Janet Sheets, Jo Ann Skeen, and Linda Downs have become tri-chairmen of the Alvin for President party.

WISHFUL: Paula Combs is manufacturing "combs guaranteed to curl the straightest hair" for Carol Saintsing's beauty salon.

DUMPY: "Working hard every day" are Nancy Stansfield, Karolyn Shelton and Margaret Shultz as dutiful housewives. Bonnie Sue Reavis and Kay Summers have started a More - Rights - for - the - Housewives movement.

BACHELOR: Excuse me, ladies. I see that it is now almost eleven, and, as you know, we are supposed to present the history.
Ladies and Gentlemen, your attention please! We thought it would be appropriate, in commemoration of our graduation twenty-five years ago to review our class history.
One score and ten years ago, our fathers sent forth to this school a new class - - - - (Pause) US . . . . . dedicated to the proposition that we were younger but equal in every way to our upper classmen. Then we were engaged in a great rush of activities, testing whether those students or any students so enthusiastic and so ambiious could long endure their high cchool years.

WISHFUL: The first test of leadership came when Bonnie Hemrick was chosen president of the Freshman Service Club and Kay Cook became treasurer of the Teen-Age Council. For all the effort and time given at the gym Joyce Beard, Susan Dawson, Ann Orrell, and Lois Abernethy were honored as members of the G. A. A. As one of two boys chosen for the varsity baseball team, Joe Mike White showed outstanding ability in sports. This year, also, Howard Morris brought statewide recognition to the Demon Cindermen by being the only freshman on the Championship Relay Team.

BORING: Hard work in public speaking proved profitable for Sharon Jackson, as she was named winner of the recitation contest.

DUMPY: As exams drew our freshman year to a close, we anxiously awaited a chance to rest our overwrought minds.
Our 1958 State Championship Football Squad included Charles Hauser, Alex Sarratt, and Jock Harrington. We, the sophomores, elected Steve Philo to lead our class onward. As Treasurer of the House Court, Wilson Tennille proved once again the superior leadership in our class.

BASHFUL: The lilting voices of Marsha Watson, Patty Whisnant, Martha Phillips, Susan Steere, and Anne Whitney, accompanied by Paul Little, Martin Lorber, and Bob White rang forth from the chorus room as the ever-faithful band members Jan Peterson, Randy Gibson, Sandy Smith, Billy Hurst, Cam Lane, and Kay Stone provided overpowering competition. Although sad to bid Silas Marner farewell, to abandon Caesar fighting in Gaul and to leave King Arthur at his Round Table, we looked forward to the eleventh grade.

Class Prophecy

BACHELOR: Still determined to reach our goal, we eagerly accepted the title of junior and our bafflement began as we were tossed from L S's to the confusing A B C's. These ingenious A B C's proved profitable for a number of deserving juniors: Don Needham, Linda Fulton, Jackee Peace, and Sarah Bette Barnhardt were among those awarded membership in the National Honor Society on the basis of their character, leadership, scholarship, and service.

DUMPY: As cheerleaders, five of our peppiest girls boosted the class standing as they almost stole the election from the amazed seniors. Arthur Jacobsen received a unique distinction when he, still a junior, was elected captain of the track team. One large group which many of us joined was the Serviteers, led by Janie Fleenor. Patsy and Judy Collins helped to keep the upper classmen in line as chiefs of the ten senior marshals.

BORING: During May, the common laborers of our group ardently began constructing light houses, planting islands, catching fish and building bridges, thus producing the most exclusive Junior-Senior ever. We realized this would be our last summer as footloose and fancy-free Reynoldsites and therefore we made big plans for the coming months. Two adventuresome members of our class graced Europe with Reynolds High School culture. While Sherry Hardy surveyed gay Paree from the top of the Eiffel Tower, Anne Davis could be seen camel-back riding across the shifting sands of the Sahara. Erika Arndt, our sister from Germany, distinguished our senior class as the first exchange student.

WISHFUL: In sharp contrast to carefee days of sand and sun, active days of party politics and tight elections were spent by Pam Benbow and Ked Hepler, representatives to Girls' and Boys' State, respectively.

BASHFUL: At last the sovereign reign was handed down to us. We lorded it over the sophomores and juniors, and regretted that we had no eighth and ninth graders to push around. The scepter of leadership was placed in the capable hands of John Barrow, president of the Student Council, and Ked Hepler, speaker of the House of Representatives. Willingly sacrificing their time and energies for the enforcement of our Honor Code, Steve Heckard served as vice-president; Patsy Pearce and Bob Zeh, as council members. Discouraging potential House Court violators, Betsy Holton, speaker pro tempore, and Richard Herring, House Court representative from the seniors, aided Ked in his constant campaign against hall-runners, line breakers, and class-skippers.

BORING: A superb selection was made for the D.A.R. Good Citizen in Betty Gray Heefner. Pam Benbow, president, led other National Honor Society members in tapping new students to fill their ranks.

BACHELOR: Since the caliber of senior "footballers" was so very outstanding, the squad decided, for the first time in Reynolds High history, to choose tri-captains. Steve Heckard, Bill Flinton, and Johnny Davis led the team through a very successful season.

DUMPY: Also in the sporting phase of extra-curricular activities, Donna Dull, president, and Ann Badgett, vice-president, led the G. A. A. Boosting ever upward our total school spirit, especially during the tremendous fall season were Jo Ann Stafford and Nita Cox, co-leaders of the Pep Board. Carrying the proud tradition of our school onto the playing field, the high stepping majorettes, led by Anne Davis, entertained us each Friday night with the clever routines by Patricia Walker, choreographer. Leading the Demon fans in the traditional "Two Bits" were our two Betsys (Holton and Steele) accompanied by a rather confusing array of family relations.

WISHFUL: The friendly rivalry between the Key Club and the SSC was stronger than ever. Although no one can honestly say which club operated more efficiently, everyone agreed that the members of both showed fine judgment in regard to leadership. Jimmy Bunn presided over the Key Club; Connie Little, over the SSC.

BASHFUL: As senior homeroom treasurers, Betty Greer and Tommy Blalock helped to keep the class finances in order, while Skip Stanley was a hard-working Executive Committee member. Those chosen to plan and supervise the many senior class activities were our officers, Betty Gray Heefner, Graham Forrest, Sharon Bain, and Billy Leake.

DUMPY: Everybody was thrilled to see an excellent basketball team. We flocked to the games and often saw our boys victorious.

BACHELOR: Because of his vocal talent and worthwhile contribution to the choir, Doug Ludlum was honored with its presidency. Also in the music department, as president of the orchestra, was Robin Reynolds. The bandaids and methiolate were turned over to Linda Heritage, president of the Red Cross. Showing leadership ability in the College Club were Virginia Simpson, Libby Jackson, and Paula Stanford. The clean blackboards we saw each day were due to the untiring effort of Meredith Chandler and Jeanie Hutcherson, leaders of the Resegis.

BORING: In Room 124, the scene of much activity, Jane Marshall and Sue French, co-editors, busily prepared our BLACK AND GOLD. The library staff proved very helpful as they kept our parallel books in order. Mickey Singletary, Helen Odom, and Gwen Grice were the officers of this group.

Class Prophecy

WISHFUL: Trying hard to forget that our outdoor sports, our Spring Prom, our G. A. A. Playday, and our conversations on the landing would be our last, we thanked our teachers for their unselfish help through our years at Reynolds. More than a few tears sparkled in students' eyes as we realized that with graduation, our high school experiences and memories would end.

BASHFUL: Brings back old memories, doesn't it?

BORING: Why yes, I remember - - - - -

WISHFUL: Oh, I think I'm going to cry!

DUMPY: It's all right, Wishful. Do you remember all the Davis girls? Barbara, Beverly, and Linda have pooled their abilities and are now producing the stage hit, THE ADVENTURES OF MUTT AND JEFF, starring Doug Foster and Kent Fox.

BASHFUL: Tom Rucker has joined the Navy as a Latin interpreter, but he's making no progress since the Navy hasn't captured any Roman galleys lately.

WISHFUL: Genny Ferebee is designing clothes for the ten best-dressed women of America. Carole Gaines and Cecilia Fulmer have just been named to list.

BORING: Flowers and decorations are compliments of Bill Daisy, who with his forceful peddling ability has made daisies the best selling flower of the year, as you can see. He even has hired Shirley Smith, Sandy Smothers, and Joan Eysenbach to make artificial ones.

DUMPY: What's the ruckus in the corner?

BACHELOR: Oh, that's Larry George passing our Johnson and Johnson Bandaides, furnished by Precilla Johnson.

WISHFUL: Oh, my goodness! Major Tuttle took all Larry had left. What happened to him?

BORING: I heard he was dropped by Chuck Jackson during their trapeze act in David Wolfe's circus.

BASHFUL: Yes, I've seen that circus. R. B. King is the lion tamer and Pat Walton is the tight rope walker.

DUMPY: Also, Russell "The Muscle" Thomas serves as the strong man.

BASHFUL: Do tell! Bob Hancock is working as Mr. Before in muscle-men advertisements. Say, we'd better have that television set removed; a big crowd is gathered watching "Yogi Bear." There are Judy George, Kathryn Hampton, Barbara Wright, and Buddy Zimmerman.

BACHELOR: Yes, and while you're at it, tell Diane Haworth to put down that volley ball.

WISHFUL: Did you know that they're trying to get Chuck Lee to do his lighthouse-jump ballet to the tune of "Please Help Me, I'm Falling?" On television, I mean.

BORING: You don't say! Have you seen the movie done on Ronnie Willard's football career, "It Will Only Hurt for a Little While?"

WISHFUL: Sure enough. I, also, read a very good book the other day, I'm Looking Down at Life, the autobiography of Stuart Highsmith.

DUMPY: Sounds good. Did you know that Tennis Anyone, the drama by Mike Stanford about Richard Gilmore is now playing at Joel Hicks's new theater?

BORING: How strange! That man is always scratching his back.

BACHELOR: That's Woody Harris. He runs a flea circus. He's furious at Doug Kinney. Doug tried to sell flea spray at one of Woody's shows.

BASHFUL: Why, there's Steve Wall, captain of this years "Calvin Trogden Cup" whittling team. Steve James, Jimmy Lamm, and Aubrey Shelton are the other members of the squad. Walter Joest was formerly with the whittlers but was sidelined by a small cut leading from his right index finger to his ear.

WISHFUL: How dreadful! Oh, look! It's Johnnie Lynn Harrold. She sells vitamin pills. Some of her regular customers are Libby Harper, Sandra Harvel, Sue Hepler, Nancy Koelmel. Bonnie Lanier says she likes being lazy.

BORING: Willard Pruessel and Bob Downing have just received the Nobel Prize for Literature for their book, "Ten Easy Ways to Pass Chemistry."

WISHFUL: Who is that getting out of a sled?

BASHFUL: Patsy Rudolph is making toy life-size reindeer for Walter Solomon's toy factory. That big tycoon Ronny Spainhour, who was just appointed president of Spainhours, Inc., has bought out the whole stock. Some of his best customers are Jimmy Smith, Barbara Clark, Juanita Speight and Beverly Cox.

BORING: Well, well! There goes Betty Tucker. She has established a new insurance policy to cover the loss of contact lenses. This was for the protection of her good friends, Fran Ubele and Connie Wise.

BACHELOR: Pam Hooper and Jean Carol Parker have set up a veterinarian practice; they specialize in horses. Two of their most frequent patients are Martha Waggoner's pony and Mary Ruth Dobbins's Horse.

Class Prophecy

DUMPY: Ruby Holder has also gone into business. She is manufacturing a new style of ring, which she calls "Ruby Holders." Donna Kirby, Glenda Herman, and Ted Hill are jewel cutters under her employment.

BASHFUL: Say, that fellow looks familiar.

DUMPY: That's Bill "Lefty" Westbrook, who tried to get Congress to pass a bill prohibiting the use of right hands in America. Glenn Thrush, Mike Watts, and Jake Weaver championed the cause of all right handers by opposing the bill.

BASHFUL: Is that right? I heard something along that line. Mary Vanderver is sponsoring the "Bring Santa to the South Pole" drive. Dorothy Wall and Ann Wilson seem to think that the warm climate might take the Christmas spirit away from the reindeer.

WISHFUL: I agree with them. Another thing, though. Wally Tate, driver-education teacher, said he heartily approves of the National-Be-Kind-To-Telephone-Poles Week proposed by Theresa Lanier, Robert Jarvis, and Patsy Lightner.

BORING: Did you hear? Elaine Westmoreland and Libby Harding invented a new kind of shampoo. It is in an economy sized, unbreakable, faultless plastic tube and does not sting the eyes nor stain clothes. There is only one minor defect. It fails to clean the hair. In fact, Gayle Walker said that Linda Wall said Mary Talley and Sandy Zimmerman have both refused to endorse the product.

BORING: Say, I heard tha . . . . . .

BACHELOR: Excuse me, Boring, but I am afraid that it is almost time to leave. Before we do, however, I think it would be nice to read the last Will and Testament.

Ladies and Gentlemen, since there are but a few moments left before the stroke of midnight, let us close with the reading of our last Will and Testament.

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

My, students, look at how far we've advanced,
We're stepping down now from our great senior stance;
But wishes galore fill our bright little minds
And we're leaving mementos of various kinds.

To our Mr. Joyner, we'll always be grateful,
He was our principal and always so faithful;
And each of our teachers has guided us well,
We'll miss them much more than we ever could tell.

We'll give T. V. History a long needed rest,
And leave Mr. Wilson his deadly pop test;
Mrs. McDermott's dear cherubs say each time they see us,
"Please leave her 'ole Jup' and a cloud-wrapped Aeneas."

And now we'll go on to the personal matters,
Some are in good shape but some are in tatters.
The Gardner twins' questions—a hundred and one
Are left to Anne Parker with hopes of much fun.

Leslie Atkinson's painting that's finally dry
Was bestowed with good wishes to Mary Rose Frye;
To Mary Ann Swaney, a bright junior lass,
Roger David gives his title "young one of the class."

Betty Lee Bulla to lanky Bob Blair
Bequeaths her small auto showing much wear and tear;
In hopes that Bob Craver will learn how to hit,
James Ashcroft hands over his bat and his mit.

Sue Ellen McCuiston wills her lovely red tresses
To whom she won't tell, but she'll give you three guesses;
Sandra Shelor to small Carol Inabinet bestows
Her five feet two inches and little pug nose.

Barbara Rix and Marilyn Saks, two boots from our class,
Drop out for Linda Sims, a high stepping lass;
Along that same line David Parrish says of dancing,
"It's easy to learn and so very entrancing."

Woody Alexander leaves his dum-de-dum-dums
For any bright student who's good on the drums;
Intelligent Bob Avery with good brains to spare
Bequeaths some gray matter to Katy Welfare.

Dale Harriman liked football as we all could tell
So he now leaves his talent to Bubba Brockwell;
James Pagett's job, manager, caused such a wild frenzy
That he now gives some pointers to Tommy McKenzie.

Sharron Benson, a girl who's a very good cook
Has decided to donate her recipe book;
From Carolyn and Rosalyn who are a delight
Their teachers deserve a long rest for their sight.

To spry Norton Willis from Keith Hunter a gift—
It's a basketball handbook to give him a lift;
Which event he will run, Ken Essex usually can't tell,
That versatility he now leaves to Tommy Cordell.

A well-used slide ruler as handy as books
Is given to Paul Licker from thankful Jack Brooks;
From Ray Penry to juniors some words that will pay,
"Learn all that you can for you'll use it someday."

But now we're approaching the end of our will,
For dear R. J. R. shining high on a hill,
We always will cherish and love every part,
While keeping our memories deep down in our heart.

Frolics of the Underclassmen . . .

I feel clean A-L-L-L over.

Good Heavens! Simple cell division.

It's do-it-yourself time everywhere.

Cut out that wild driving around the school.

No, I'm not in the Marines.

Here comes another boy.

I've heard of togetherness, but this is ridiculous.

Oh it's a great act all right, but what will you do for an encore?

Student Council

The student council is the oldest branch of the student cooperative government. The purpose of the members of the council is to establish and maintain, by precept and example, high standards of honor and moral responsibility. To put these ideals into practice, the council has the right to try any student who has violated the Honor Policy. This policy is the standard by which Reynolds High School students, as intelligent and responsible young people, must abide.

House of Representatives

The House of Representatives encourages pride in school campus, consideration, courtesy, and co-operation. In the meetings every Wednesday afternoon, its members are patient and willing, even though the sessions are long. Among the many House projects are collecting P.T.A. membership dues, providing gifts and food for needy families at Christmas, sponsoring Student Government Week with the Student Council, and giving a welcome party with the National Honor Society for new students.

National Honor Society

Again this year, the Brevard Hoover Chapter of the National Honor Society has been hard at work carrying out its traditional projects. Ever-busy members acted as guides for College Day, introduced speakers for Vocational Week, sponsored the New Students Tea, and presented the first devotional chapel of the year. Twice during the year they donned the traditional black robes and inducted new members into the society.

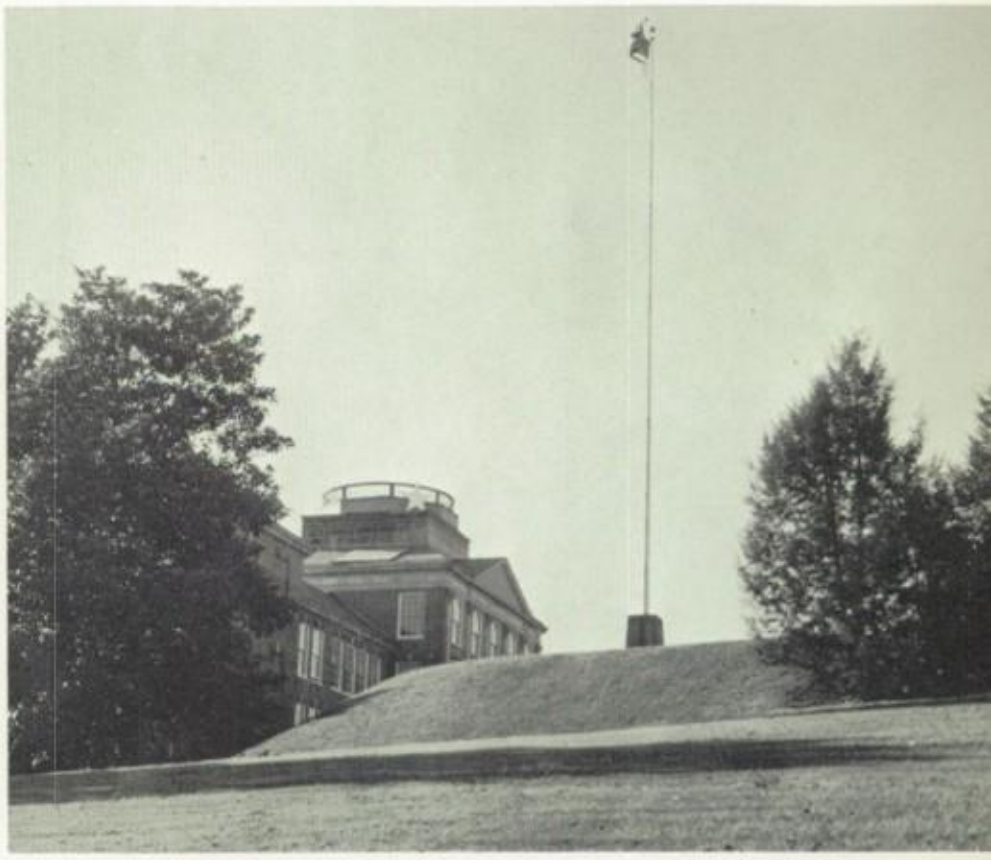
Key Club

The Key Club, sponsored by Mr. Don Kelly, lives its motto, "Service first!" Their many projects include: painting study hall windows, waxing library tables, raking leaves, putting up the Christmas star, placing a Christmas tree in the cafeteria, collecting money for the March of Dimes, the Key Club Follies and many others. Led by their President, Jim Bunn, the members of the Key Club have enjoyed a successful year of undertaking traditional projects.

Sharon Bain is Key Club Sweetheart.

Polishing trophies is a diligent club past time.

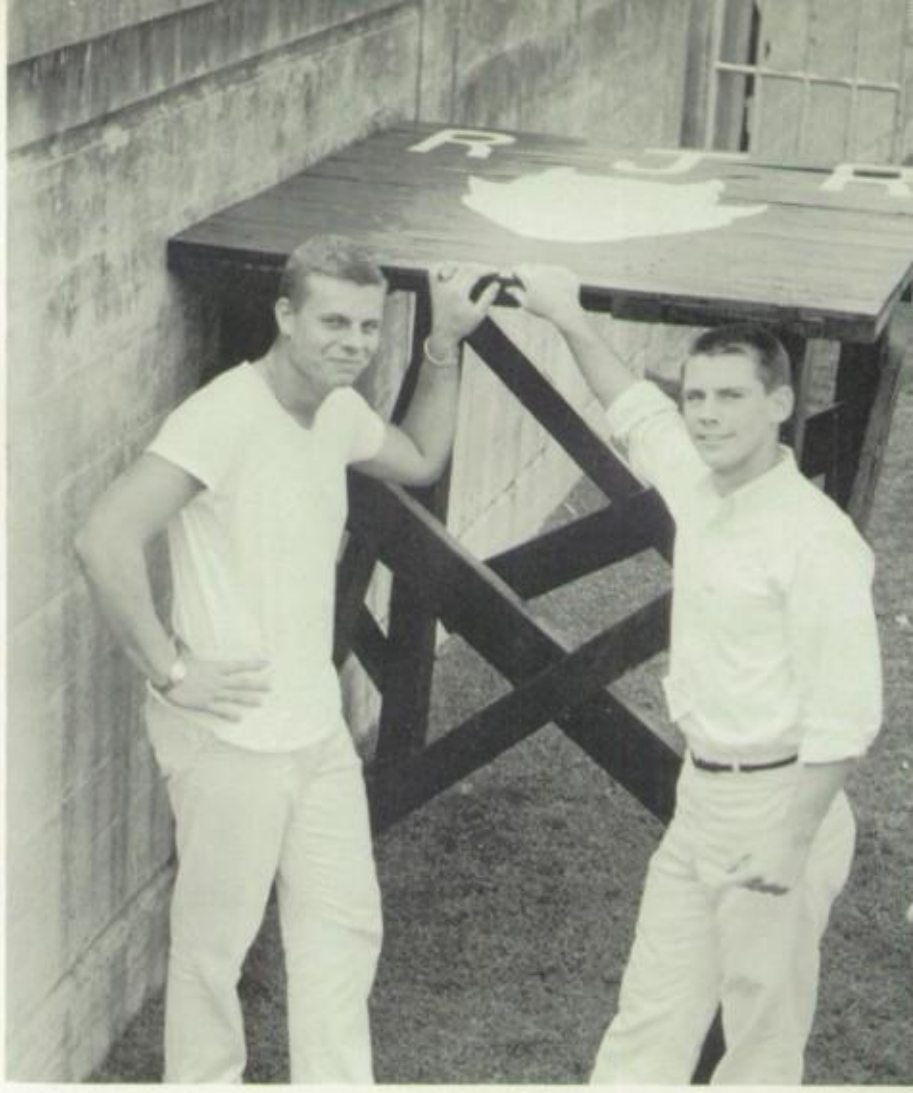


The star on the school is another Key Club tradition.

Members of the Key Club help with annual paper drive.

Mr. Kelly, history teacher, is club sponsor.

I didn't know that the S. S. C. could cook too!



We stand here during the game and hold the platform up.

Senior Service Club

Cleaning fish ponds and distributing "beat 'em" tags —these are examples of useful projects that the Senior Service Club undertakes each year. Throughout the year they are always ready to help students and faculty. S. S. C. projects include the Christmas Tea for teachers, sponsoring the basketball homecoming, displaying the Deamon before each football game, and keeping up-to-date records on the juke box.

Gosh, he's been down there a long time!

Fierce, isn't it?

College Club

For senior girls planning to enter college, membership in the College Club was a necessary and rewarding experience. The sponsors, Miss Weaver and Mrs. McDermott, along with outstanding guest speakers, provided the girls with many helpful hints for successful college life. During the year, members sponsored a fund raising campaign, gave the graduation open house, and presented a $100 College Club Scholarship to the most deserving girl in the club.

Miss Weaver and Mrs. McDermott are the College Club sponsors.

Officers are Paula Stanford, Treasurer; Libby Jackson, Secretary; Sharon Jackson, President; and Virginia Simpson, Vice-President.

Teen-Age Council

Officers Betsy Steele and Jimmy Bunn were walking on the water (frozen.)

With the help of their sponsor, Mrs. Margaret Howard, the Teen-Age council gave socials for all occasions during the year; the "rockin' Halloween" Dance, Christmas party, annual Twirp dance, hayrides, picnics, and club initiation at Miller Park are some examples.

Never-to-be-forgotten are the Tuesday night meetings, where the members enjoyed homemade cookies, trying to keep Chuck quiet, and the latest news.

The officers, Jim Bunn, President; Betsy Steele, Vice-President; Chuck Westmoreland, Secretary, led the Teen-Age council in a great year of fun and frolic.

Pep Board

Co-chairmen Nita Cox and Jo Ann Stafford.

This year was a busy and successful one for the Pep Board. The posters and shakers serve to show the outstanding part it has played in boosting the school spirit at R. J. R. Can we ever forget "Demon Lane," pep rallies, homecoming chapels and all the other things the Board has done for us? Thanks to JoAnn Stafford, Nita Cox, and the other members of the Pep Board, this was a year we will never forget.

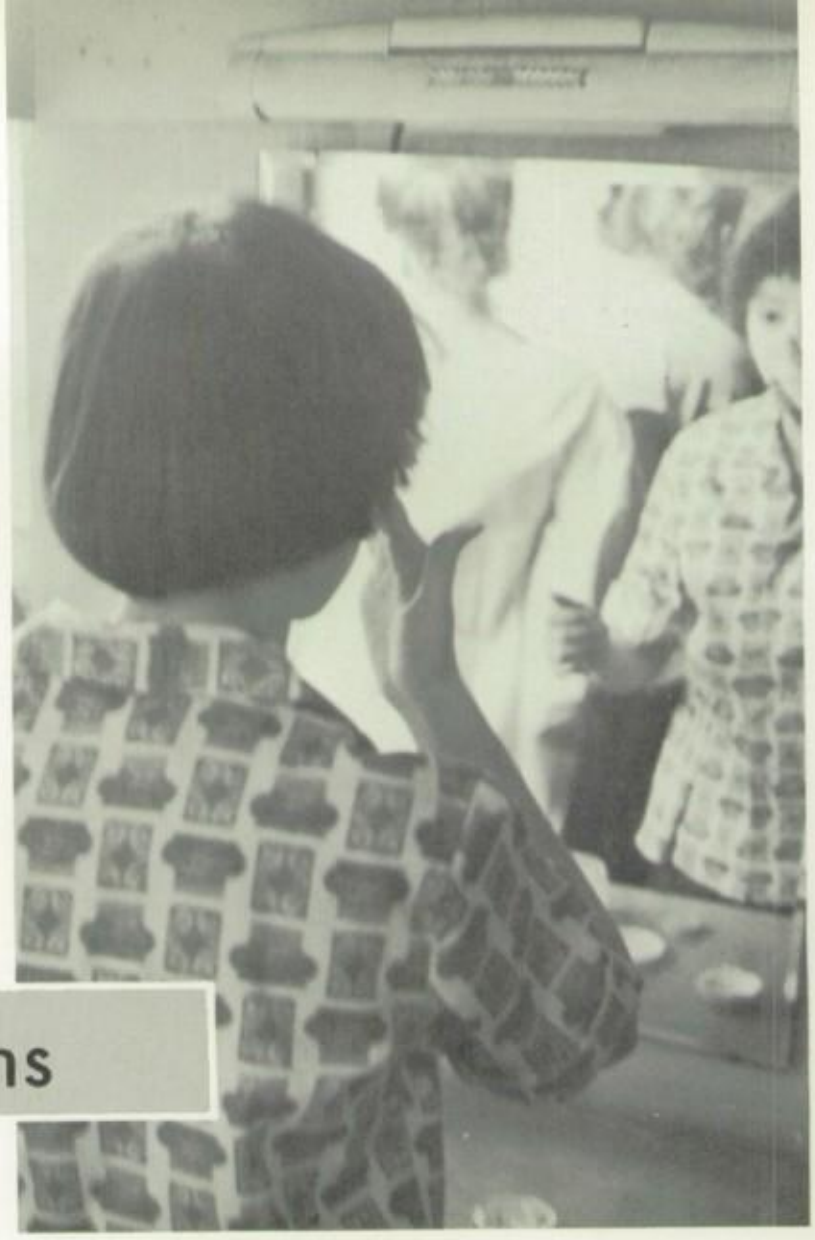
Thespians



An actress applies make-up for the "Emperor's Doll."

After several years of relatively little activity, the Dramatics Club this year began its renaissance. In order to develop a corps of trained technicians and actors, the Dramatics Club worked with Wake Forest College in play production. Various groups throughout the year produced plays and training exercises. A special room in the school was set aside for the club's use and the "building-block" program was begun to regain the status of the club in our school's extra-curricular activities. Participation in the state Drama Festival, several club programs for the student body, and other projects have renewed interest in this field of student education.

DRAMATICS CLUB

Thespian officers are: Penny Thompson, Secretary-Treasurer; Jon Bednerik, President; and Jennie Divine, Vice-President.

First Row: R. Beach, C. Carlton, R. Blackwell, M. Miller, B. Adams, B. Curtis. Second Row: M. Harrington, B. Hyland, G. Harmon, D. Meschan, C. Deleot, M. Orr. Third Row: R. Isaacs, D. Sprinkle, B. Lambeth, J. Blackburn, R. David, J. Doud.

Debating Club

The Debating Club this year again prepared for the Wake Forest workshop, triangular debates, and district eliminations. Long hours spent writing speeches and sharpening rebuttals have made our debaters formidable opponents in the National Forensic League and the District Congress at Raleigh.

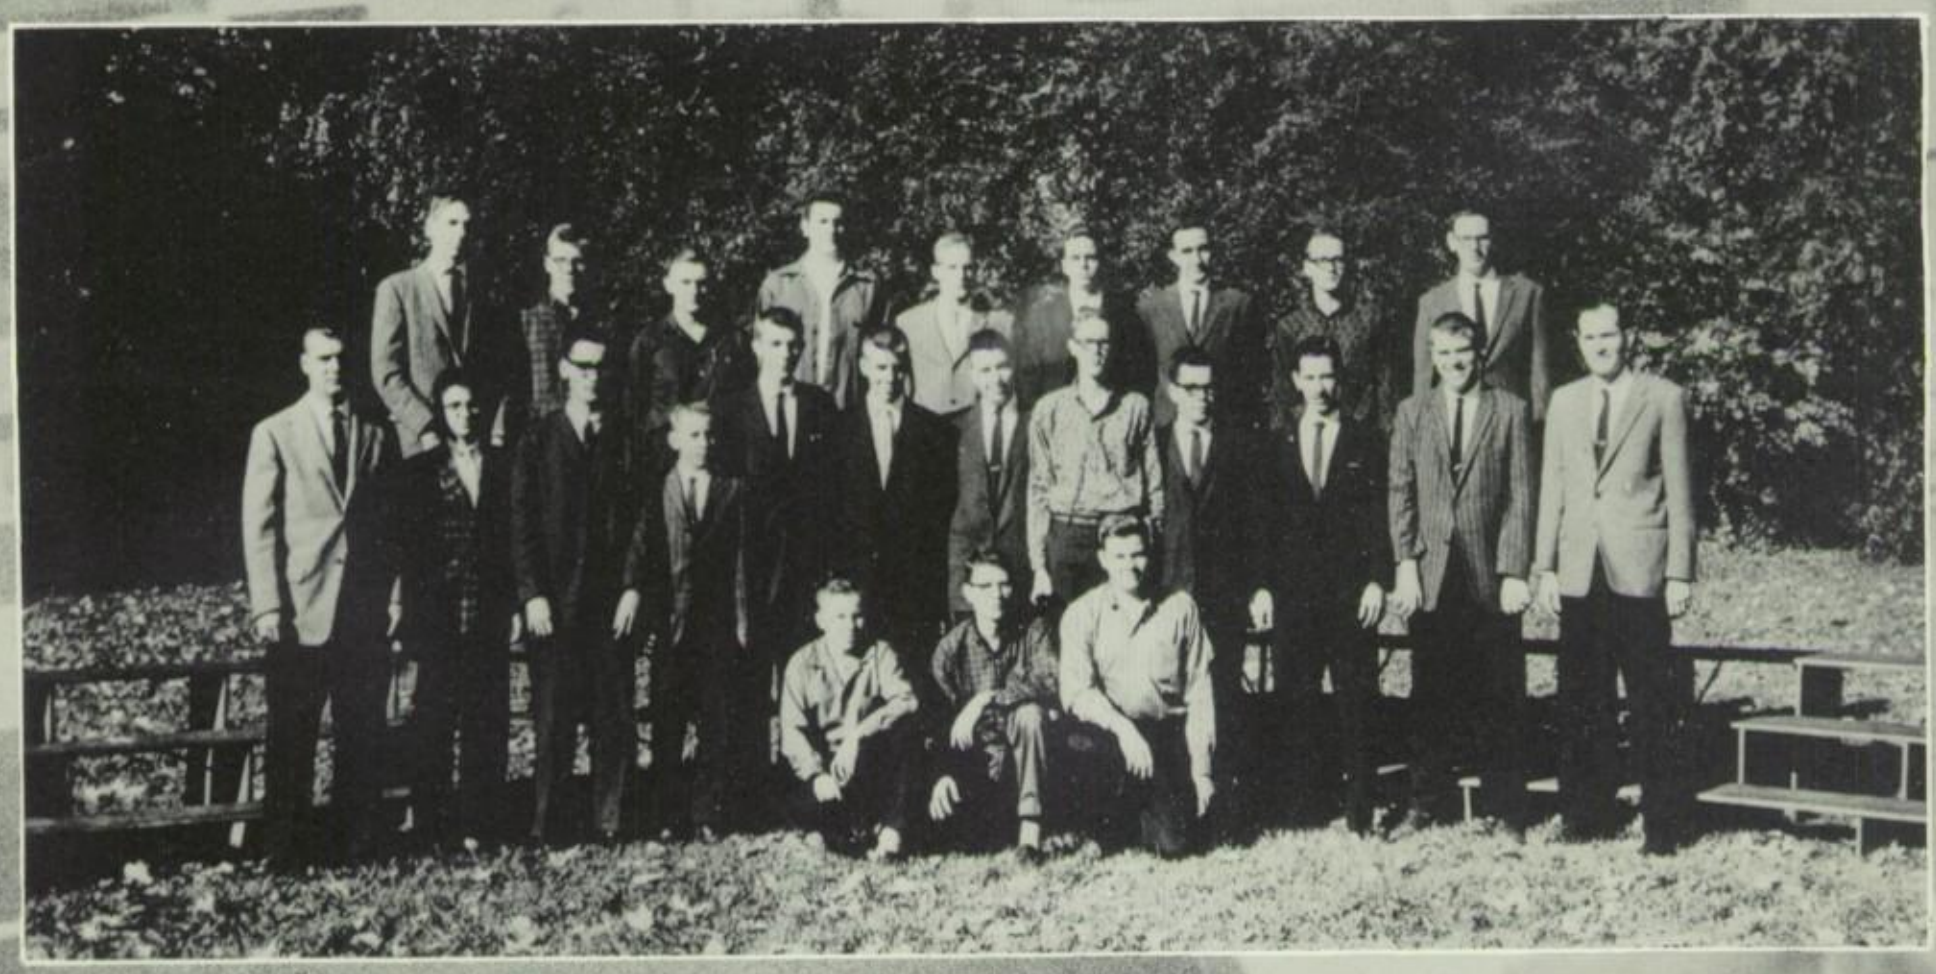
The officers of the Debating Club are J. Blackburn, G. Harmon, D. Meschan, and M. Harrington.

Practice is an important part of every debater's life.

Science Club

Mr. Fulcher, sponsor, and officers Bob Downing, Jack Brooks, and Bill Mitchell do not seem puzzled by the board full of science problems.

The Science Club of Reynolds, to encourage and develop the scientific interest of high school students, viewed films and carried out projects in the theme of a better understanding of science during this year.



First Row: J. Brooks, Secretary; B. Downing, President; B. Mitchell, Vice-President. Second Row: Mr. Whitley, J. Miller, T. Wood, D. Grass, D. Beamer, J. Mack, A. Garr, G. Stockton, G. Thrush, B. Chemistry Club

Henry Craddock, Mr. Jarrell, Don Lineback, and Eric Goodman appear to be waiting for the cork to blow off.

The Chemistry Club, composed of students who are interested in extending their knowledge of chemistry beyond that which is offered in the school laboratory, attempted to present to its members the practical applications of chemistry through lectures, films, and tours of local industries. Although organized only this year, the Chemistry Club has been successful in presenting to its members a program of continuing interest.

After Hours - - -

She melts me.

Hit 'em again, harder.

Night-tol.

But officer, I wasn't speeding!

Whew! What pain!

Please help me down.

Apparently neither one of them can see.

I think she's getting Channel 2.

Gee, a football player in my crackerjack box.

It's only water . . . WATER

Monogram Club

MR. WILSON

The white letter sweaters worn so proudly by many of the boys at Reynolds mark them as members of the Monogram Club. Throughout the year the industrious members could be seen working at the doors for basketball games and sponsoring after-game dances. In addition, they were responsible for organizing the Black and Gold Fund Raising Campaign.

Officers are Steve Heckard, President; Johnny Davis, Vice-President; and Arthur Jacobsen, Secretary.

Miss June Dinkins, sponsor of the G.A.A.

The Girls' Athletic Association, sponsored by Miss June Dinkins, has a program of varsity and intramural sports open to all girls, whether G.A.A. members, or girls working for membership. Different sports include speedball, volleyball, basketball, skating, parties, hikes, and many others. Highlight of this year was the G.A.A. Banquet held in May, where members were awarded shields, monograms, stars, and state pins for their worthy activities during the year. The G.A.A. strives to offer healthful recreation and wholesome enjoyment to every girl.

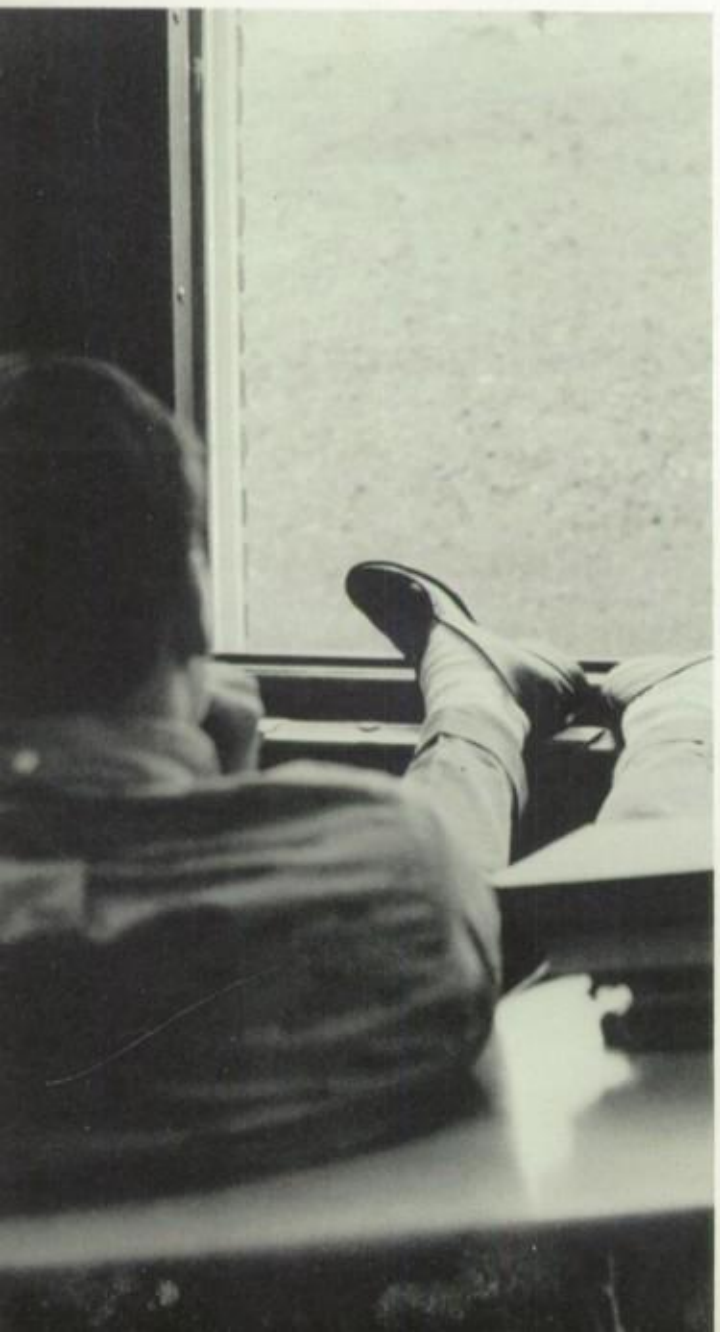
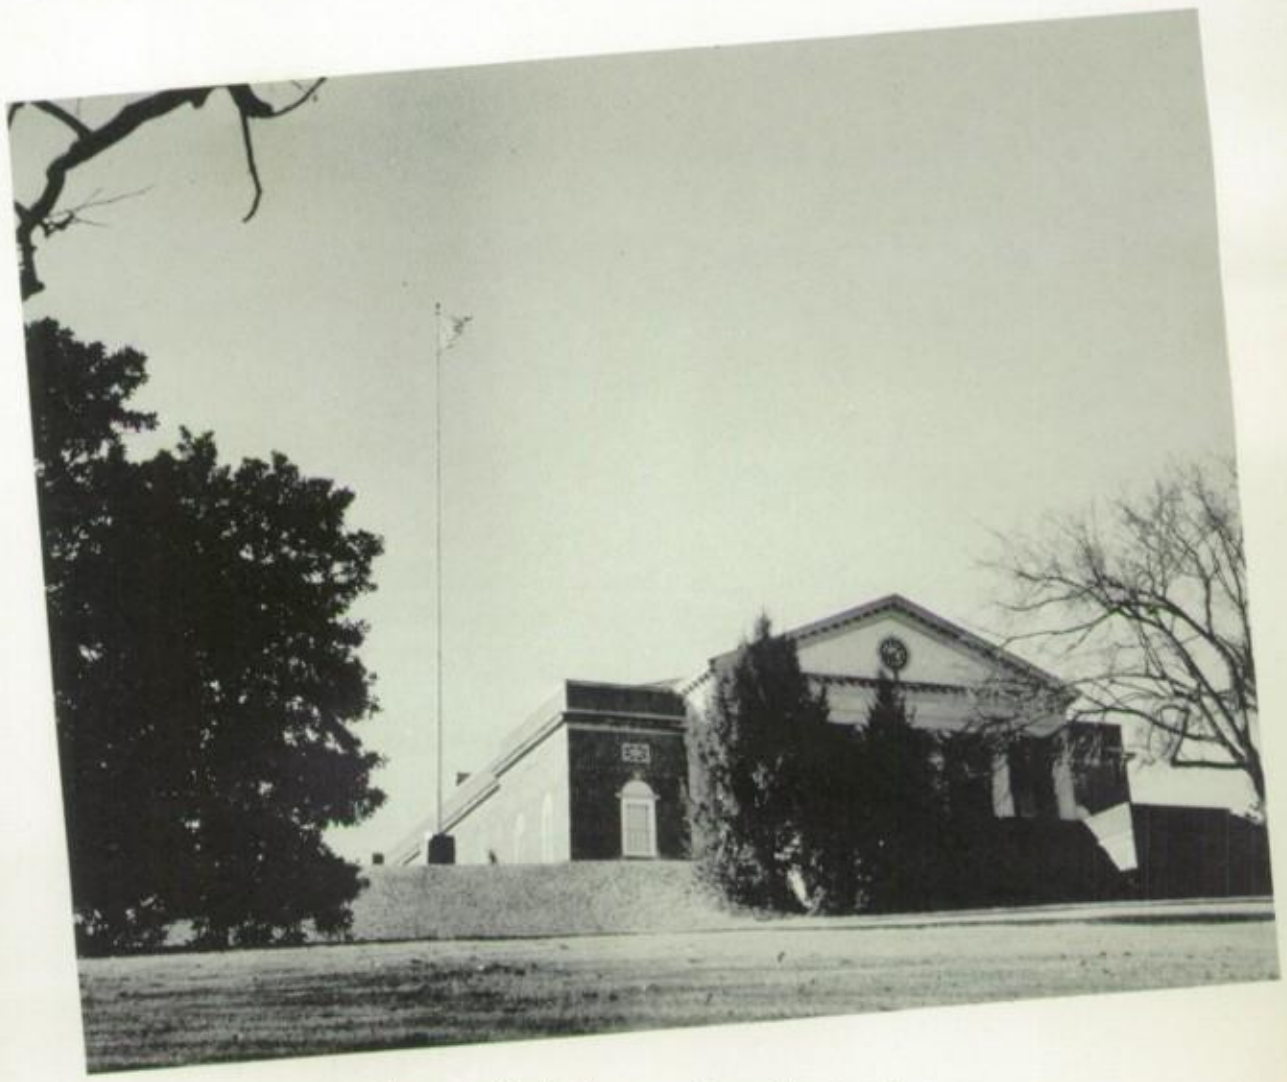
I just don't see how those philosophers can sit there all day!

Our home away from home is Reynolds High.

Last

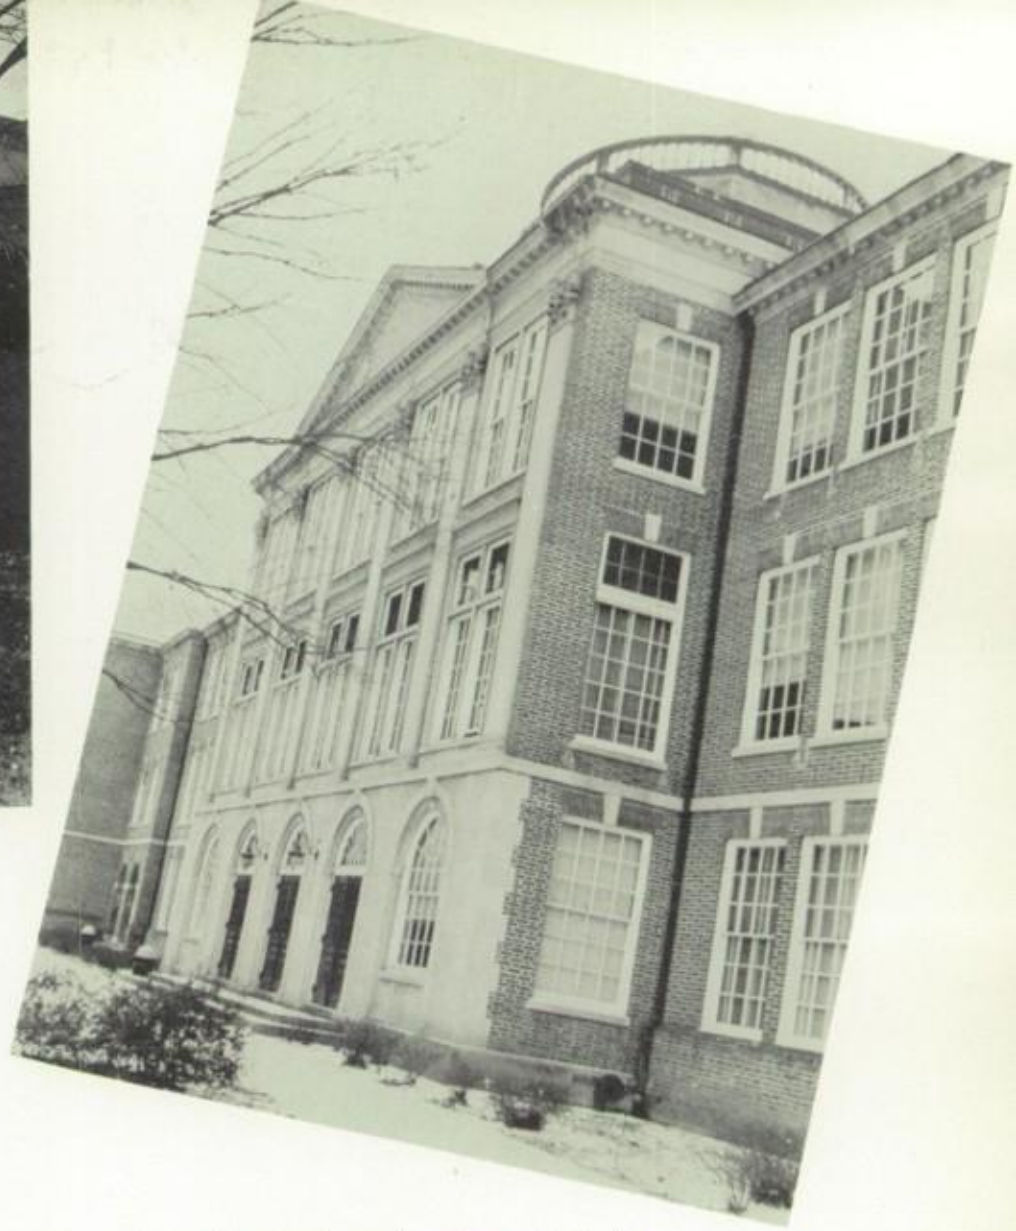
The good old days are upon us—





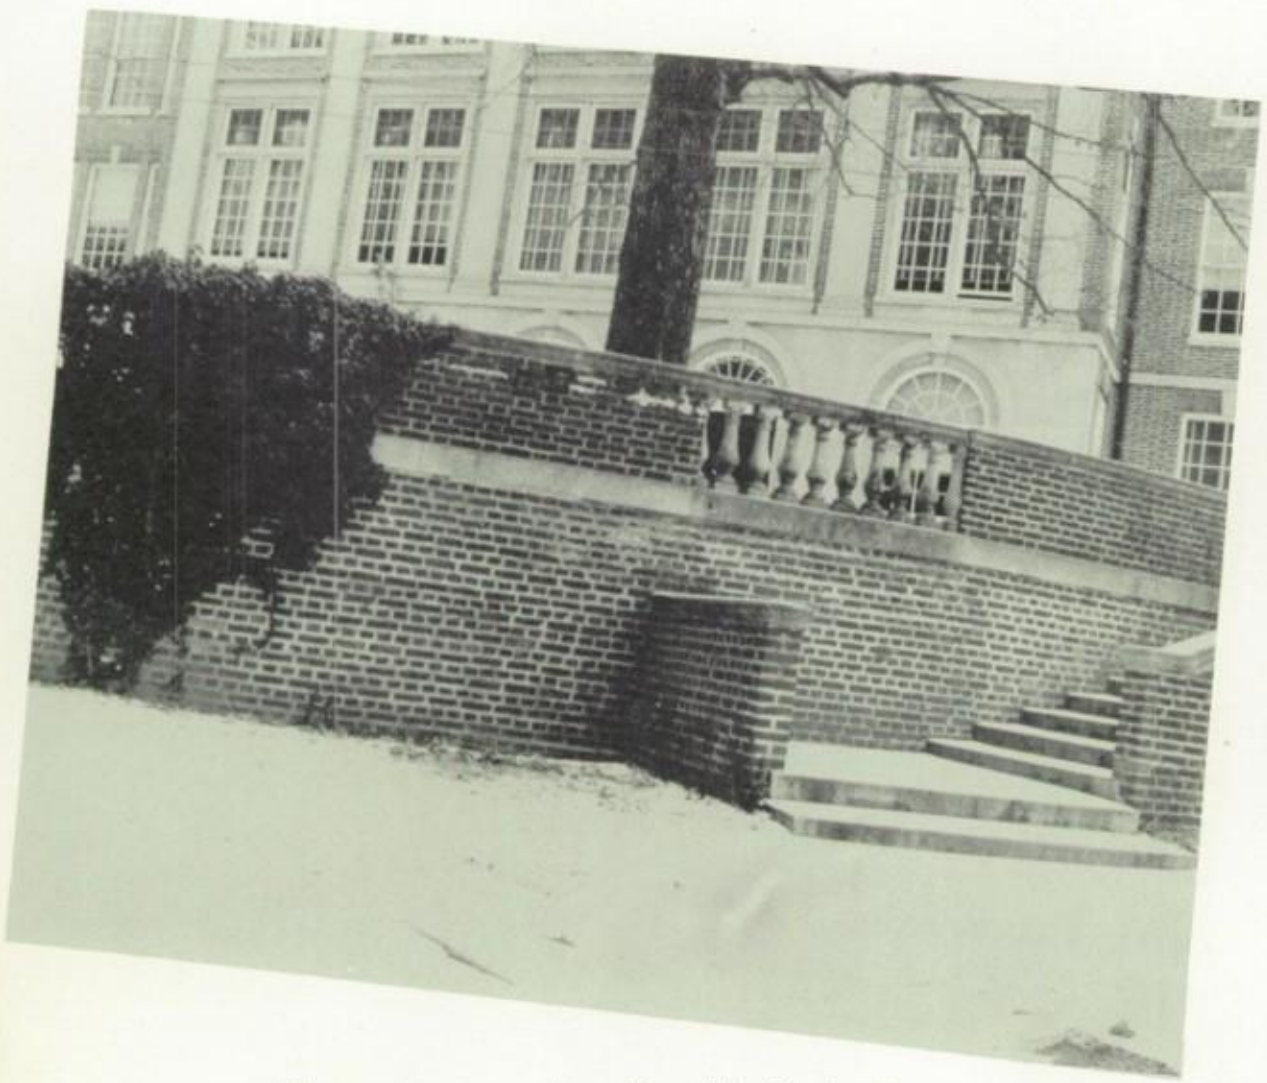
Banners fly high over Reynolds Auditorium.

Beyond the portals tall and wide our school proudly stands.



Reynolds weathers the storm of winter.

Scenes



The empty steps shows Reynolds dismissed.

Spring brings activity to Reynolds.

Barbara,

Well we're finally through with this mess & know we'll miss Lucille terribly. We have enjoyed knowing such a sweet & kind girl. Best of luck in college.

Barbara,
Here we are at the end of our senior year. Time to part but not forever. Have a nice summer and enjoy your senior privileges. I know you'll make many friends in your future years. Never forget the good times we've had.

Barbara,
"Do nite we're gonna rock." I'll never forget this year, all the fun, dancing, singing, rocking, and riding through Drake and Staley's. What's now, we still have the beach to go, no es verdad? Take care of Winston and W.R. next year when I'm at Jacksonville.
Best of luck to a sweet girl with personality plus.

Dear, I have enjoyed getting to know you this year. Like to dance and I'm sure you do too. Hope we can make more memories next year. Well, anyway it helped me remember all the good times we had. Mike + I wonder if you remember the time we went to Drake and almost froze to death -- I sure hope you have a nice summer. Love, Diana

Well Barb- graduation is upon us - it doesn't seem like we've walked these halls for 5 years does it? Time really flies! Best of everything to an adorable girl! "Thanks for the memories!"

Bary,

Well, we finally made it through this year. How we did it I'll never know. Remember this time last year? Need I say more? I won't mention any names, cause I don't want to embarrass (is that the way to spell it) you. I never embarrass you, so I don't want to this time. So much has happened since last year. Golly, it seems like ages since we were out a Tuesday constanty ([redacted] and I do mean constanty.) What would we have done if..... (Well, you know what I mean) Gads, I don't even think our life would have been tumble, but I'm sure we would have found something to do. When next Sept. comes, our mothers will once more have complete use of the phone. I'll bet we've spent at least 100 hrs. on the phone, and at least 99% of them were spent talking about you know who. (I bet you I wouldn't mention any names.) Thanks loads for listing to mine and Williams' problems. I know you get tired of hearing our problems, but I've had to listen to you talk about.....; so I guess we're about even. Boy, this summer we're really gonna rock! Just think! Bary this time next week, we'll be out of R.J.R. forever?! I just can't believe it. After 12 long yrs. we're gonna graduate. Just think about all the things we've done since we started running around together. We've gotten into so much trouble (don't take it the wrong way), and had so much fun.... I won't see you much after this summer but I'll never forget the fun we've had. Best of luck at Lenoir Rhyne and after that too.

your problem friend

Dear Barb,

Well we've made it out alive!!! Everytime I think of next year I get all excited, don't you Golly, Barb, we've had some wild, + crazy times this year. Why we both could've been in the hospital with compound fractures + your car isn't in the junk yard, I sure don't know!! There's been so many close calls that I'm afraid to ride in any car now!! You may be crazy but you sure livin' up anyplace you're near!! Boy, I can imagine how your dorm will rock next year [don't forget I've got dibs and a space reserved for you] Boy, I doubt she'll ever forget that night that we made the circle fifty-five times at last! Remember when "Yogi" first came and the whole school was snowed on him! I hope you aren't mad that I went with him to the Christmas dance! It was just a friendly relationship!! We've had a wonderful time trying to be at the right places at the right time!! [for everybody!] . T.V. History is a time in my senior year that I will never forget [nightmare] When did we really take honest-to-goodness notes?? male-wise it has been kinda dull for you [except G.] + very dull for me!! But now you know that everything starts poppin' !!! [joke] Golly Ted I will have to date together sometimes and Stuart [brother love]. Gosh, Barb, I want to thank you for all the wonderful memories of my years at R.F.R. You're a great gal and I know if you will just keep smilin' that you'll make a big hit with all the guys at college + then have more boyfriends than "brothers"!! I wish you all the luck in the world and don't forget to keepsmilin!! Thanks for all the wonderful memories Love ya, Kathi

& wonder who the page over there is reserved for!!! But really we have had some wonderful memories - like the time we flushed
your pants - - - —
& the time I was riding in your wheel chair & got out &
that man that saw me almost had a wreck. Just (oppi)
8 long short days till the BEACH! We are really going to have to raise it down there. You'll have to come see me at Guilford & spend the weekend. &
suppose you'll really know Español by next year & you'll get it right from the horses' mouth!!!.

your friend always (??)
Connie Wise

Dribilin (Barbara)
It's been fun being in the same History class. Good luck in the coming year
your friend,

Barbara,
These years have been great ones and I hope the future ones will be just as great for you.

Barbara,
It has been fun
this year in Psychology.
I don't know what I'd could have done without you arguering with Coach.
It's almost time
for the BEACH. YEA!
Be good and don't raise
it too much. May Godbless.
Love Bunny Brewer

Barb,

It has been great knowing you all these years. "Honest" I really enjoyed being on your bowling team, and watching you make all those strikes. Just two more weeks and we'll be at the beach!

Best wishes,
Nancy Kolmel

Best wishes to a great gal. I'm sorry that I'm not there - but to make up for it my $ is with you in spirit. Sincerely Mike Boyd

Thanks for all the help you've been to me this year. Hope you have a great summer. Remember B.

Barbara,
It has been wonderful knowing you this year. Good luck in all that you do next year.
Can't wait for the beach.
Stay sweet.
Love,
Linda Davis

Barbara,

I have enjoyed knowing you during my stay at Reynolds.
You have been a great help to me, especially in English. I know you got tired of me asking you questions all the time. I think you are a great girl and I hope you have the best of everything in the coming years. Have a blast
this summer and
Be sweet!

Dear Barbara, It's been a ball this year. But what about those past years, we endured. Remember Carol Miller's party and the picnic!!! Good luck in the future and remember to be GOOD!!!

Love,
Barbara
(ANOTHER GARDNER YET)

Dear Barbara,

Well, the year's almost gone and that means no more confusion in homeroom about "Babs" or "Barbara". I have really enjoyed knowing you the past 5 years. Good luck to a very fine girl in the future.

Sincerely,
Babs Byerly

Barbara,

Our last and greatest year is about over. Hasn't it been wonderful — especially English. Hh. Have fun this summer.

Mary

Barbara,
We sure have had some workin' times here in Psychology this year, but I bet we'll never forget it. Even though we did. I hope you have a great time at the beach - only 12 more days 'til school starts. Although we have had many more days, it was fun.
Good luck always,
Kathy Kelleher

Barbara,
It has been fun being in Psychology with you. Good luck to you and try to come to see me. Be good in college and try to remember
Kathleen
"Kat"

Barbara,
I guess that's all I can write about. It's been wonderful having you in psychology and history. We will never forget the Indians, especially George.! Be sweet always, and my, oh, my mama, never forget the O.T.N., T.T.C., B.E., E.B.B. etc. But most of all never forget your red hair who sat behind you in 3rd. period.

Bonnie

Barbara -
It has been great in Psycology this year with you and the other seniors. I guess we can forgive "Inger". You take care of Linda and I will try to keep Willie out of trouble. Maybe they'll get along. Good Luck.

Harvey Wade

Barbara,

Well, after graduating from Ardmore, this is really something! It has been wonderful being with you and around you because you are truly a great girl to be able to know. I wish you all the luck in the world; you deserve only the best things life is to be your own. I hope your college career proves as successful as your high school career has been. Maybe I'll see you in Cuba in dos años! (JOKE!)

Remember always as a friend,
Beverly Davis

Barbara,

I've certainly enjoyed being in good ole Psy. & Eng. class with ya. It just won't be the same after we graduate without Lucille (Little Egypt.) Oh well we tried. Best wishes for happiness & success in your future years at S.R. Have fun in Cuba in 2 more years. Now let's watch it at the beach. And Remember - don't do anything that I wouldn't do - Well now that ain't bad a tall.

Remember always - now how could you forget me —

Esta primera parte en Español, La verdad desde Gracias Quisimos a ustedes mi hermano y yo la hemos pasado muy bien aunque en este tiempo no ha podido ser y quizas pueda ser en otra oportunidad, la verdad que a veces he estado molesto ciertas veces por ciertas cosas pero eso no son muchas y a veces se pueden perdonar.

P.S. I'm sure Williana appre- this - Oh well

In the time I know all body when the big four people my brother and I past good time maybe you don't believe but my brother like you. I want and I wish for you will be happy in your life.

William Sawers

Barbara, been fun
It has been this knowing you & have really year. We had some good times in Psychology. Good luck always to a
